Bitter Prosecution of Three Innocent Men Ends in Two Years Sentence.

SIX JURYMEN FOR ACQUITTAL

But Were Persuaded Into a Compromise by Other Jurors.

VERDICT ALLOWED TO STAND.

First Day of September Term Fixed to Sentence Lindle, McIntosh and Johnson.

WILL THEN HEAR THE MOTIONS FOR NEW TRIAL

Meanwhile Three Men Are Deprived of Their Liberty.

VISITED BY MANY FRIENDS.

The notable trial of J. B. Lindle, Wade McIntosh, Scott Penrod, Johnson Williams and Ed Johnson under indictment for killing Henry Taylor in the Carbondale clash of marching union men came to a close Sunday morning about 10:30 o'clock, when the jury rendered a verdict of two years imprisonment at hard labor against J. B. Lindle, Wade McIntosh and Ed Johnson, and acquitted Scott Penrod. The other defendant, Johnson Williams had been dismissed by the court early in the trial, the testimony produced by the prosecution failing to develop any conspiracy on the part of the officers, and proving that Williams was not in the fight.

The indictment charged conspiracy on the part of all the defendants to murder or do great bodily harm to Henry Taylor, William Cook and others and the prosecution put up the semblance of a fight to the end for conviction as charged in the indictment and a life sentence.

The speeches of Judge Yost, Bob Thomas and Commonwealth Attorney Grayton were extremely bitter, going outside the case continually and appealing to the basest passions and prejudices of men. The bill of objections filed by the attorneys for the defense charge the Commonwealth's Attorney with using "inflammatory, incendiary and abusive language" in his speech to the jury. Judge Yost opened his speech with the statement that "this was one of the greatest political questions that ever invaded the Commonwealth," and the defendants were made the scapegoat for the alleged monstrosities of the various corporations doing coal mining business in Hopkins County.

Below is appended the court's charge to the jury, the defense's bill of exceptions and the affidavit of the Jurymen stating the verdict was arrived at by compromise.

The regular term of court expired at 12 o'clock Saturday night. That was the term for which the jury was summoned to try the case. The jury had not reached a verdict at the expiration of the term and the court convened a special session on Sunday to receive the verdict and to complete some other unfinished business of the regular term.

After the verdict was received the court had brought before him two negro boys, who had been found guilty of felony some days previous and passed sentence of seven years on one and three years on the other. The seven year sentence was upon the Scott boy for the accidental but criminally careless shooting of Miss Graham at St. Charles during last December.

At one o'clock the court reconvened and the attorneys for the defense offered their bill of exceptions accompanied with the affidavit of the jurors and asked for a new trial. Quite a heated discussion followed. The result of the deliberation was that the court declined to set aside the verdict, declined to pass sentence and set upon the motion for new trial unless the defense should waive all rights to objection on account of the action being taken on Sunday and out of the regular term.

The defense declined to waive any rights and the court ordered the defendants to jail and set the first day of the September session to pass sentence and hear the motion.

Messrs. Lindle, McIntosh and Ed Johnson have been visited by hundreds of friends at the jail this week. Everything possible is being done for their comfort. They are quite cheerful and are bearing their suffering with fortitude.

Motion and Grounds for New Trial.

HOPKINS COUNTY COURT. Commonwealth of Kentucky, Plaintiff, vs. J. B. Lindle and Others, Defendants.

The defendants, J. B. Lindle, Wade McIntosh and Ed Johnson and each of them come and move this honorable court to set aside the verdict returned by the jury and to grant them a new trial of the issues in this cause, because the said verdict was prejudicial to the substantial rights of the defendants, and their substantial rights have been and are prejudiced thereby, and state and show the following grounds for a new trial, that is to say:

First: Because of errors of the court in failing to set aside the indictment.

Second: Because of errors of the court in overruling the demurrer to the indictment.

Third: Because of error of the court in overruling the motion for a continuance.

Fourth: Because of error of the court in summoning and impaneling the jury which tried the case.

Fifth: Because of error of the court in refusing to allow the sheriff to have charge of the jury.

Sixth: Because of misconduct on the part of the Commonwealth Attorney upon the impaneling of the trial jury in propounding to the persons tested for service the question whether or not they were in any way connected with the St. Bernard Coal Company, the Carbondale Coal Company, the Crabtree Coal Mining Company, the Monarch Coal Company and other coal companies in this county.

Seventh: Because the court erred in excluding from the jury panel many good and qualified citizens and persons for the sole reason that they had at one time formed an opinion from newspaper reports of the occurrence.

Eighth: Because of the refusal of the court to discharge the jury on account of B. E. Lafoon, a tinsmith made in the course of his voir dire examination in the presence and hearing of certain members of the jury, that he believed the defendants were guilty.

Ninth: Because the court refused to grant a peremptory instruction to the jury to find the defendants not guilty as to each and all of these three defendants at the close of the evidence for the Commonwealth, and at the close of all of the evidence.

Tenth: Because the court erred in instructing the jury, because each and all of the instructions given to the jury are erroneous, and because the court refused to properly instruct the jury and because the court thought duly thereunto moved by the defendants refused to give the whole law of the case to the jury.

Eleventh: Because the court refused to give each and all the instructions marked A. B. C. D. E. and F. presented in writing and asked by the defendants to be given to the jury.

Twelfth: Because of error of the court to permit certain competent evidence to go to the jury as follows: Statements and reasons that witness Press Cummings gave to miners at work in the mine to induce them to quit their work, statements and evidence of Stewart Miller as to contract between the foreign mine owners and United Mine Workers of America; statements and evidence of James Adams and Thomas Horton and Robin Williams that Kissinger was armed just after the shooting; statements and evidence of Odie Lafoon as to statements of Mine Workers, Jack Wright; statements and evidence of Forrest Stephens, William Smith and Thomas Smith as to statements of W. B. Kissinger made to them; statements and evidence of J. B. Lindle, as to the statements made on motion for bail by Commonwealth witnesses Zack Bonimus, John Sherrard, Clarence Sherrard and Jack Kissner and Will Woodmill the transcript of record on motion for bail.

Thirteenth: Because the court erred in admitting incompetent testimony to go to the jury as follows: all the testimony relating to the shooting of Bill Cook by Ed Johnson, all the testimony relating to the shooting of the defendants or any of them to the place of the killing, after the killing: the testimony which defendants were compelled to give as to carrying pistol and guns while acting as guards; for the error of the court in requiring the defendants to testify to the presence upon the trial of witnesses named in the affidavit for continuance.

Fourteenth: Because the court erred in charging the jury that the evidence of the defendants' witnesses contradicting the testimony of the Commonwealth's witnesses could be considered by the jury, only for the purpose of affecting the credit of the witness contradicted.

Fifteenth: Because the court erred in not permitting to be filed the amended and supplemented affidavit for a continuance, before requiring defendants to go into trial and in not permitting same to be read to the jury after proof that the attendance of Mrs. Carroll could not be secured.

Sixteenth: For error of the court in refusing to permit the witness, James Harlan, to testify to Chappell's speech at Semit Lafoon's house.

Seventeenth: Because the court permitted Albert Taylor to testify for the Commonwealth, after having remained in the court room and in hearing of the witnesses testifying on the trial.

Eighteenth: Because of error of the court in permitting the Commonwealth to contradict the defendants as to what occurred at Semit Lafoon's house and what Chappell there said.

Nineteenth: Because the verdict is against the law and evidence and is not supported by the evidence.

Twentieth: Because the court erred in extending the term of court over to Sunday, June 24, 1901, and because the court held the jury beyond its regular May term, 1901, and permitted the jury to deliberate on Sunday, and permitted the jury to arrive at a verdict on Sunday and at the said extended term.

Twenty-first: Because of misconduct of the jury.

Twenty-second: Because the jury arrived at its verdict by compromise, and otherwise than by a fair expression of opinion by the jury and that the verdict is not a fair expression of the opinion of the jurors and is not a true verdict.

Twenty-third: Because the court erred in permitting the Commonwealth's counsel and Commonwealth's attorney in their arguments to the jury to discuss the affidavit for a continuance and to comment upon the presence of the witnesses therein alleged to be incompetent, and to discuss the affidavits of other improper, inflammatory, incendiary and abusive remarks of the Commonwealth's counsel and Commonwealth's attorney in their address to the jury, which remarks and remarks were improper and objected to at the time by the defendants, and which were not excluded by the court.

Twenty-fourth: Because the court erred in receiving the verdict on Sunday and in the extended term, and because the court has no right to extend the regular term and has no right to render judgment.

They file herewith as a part hereof the affidavits of A. B. Sirey, Roland G. Sisk and W. E. Cates in support of this motion of these grounds.

They are agreed to set aside the verdict and to try the case anew and by way of compromise with conflicting factions on the jury.

The Instructions.

Following is the instructions of the court:

No. 1. The court instructs the jury that if they believe from the evidence, beyond a reasonable doubt, that in this country and before the finding of this indictment, the defendants, J. B. Lindle, Ed Johnson, Wade McIntosh and W. S. Penrod, did unlawfully, feloniously and with malice aforethought, confederate, combine, conspire and agree together to wilfully, feloniously and with malice aforethought slay and murder Henry Taylor, or that any two or more of the said defendants did so conspire, confederate and agree together for such purpose, and if the jury further believe from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, that in this country and before the finding of this indictment, in pursuance of such conspiracy, combination and agreement, if any, the defendant, J. B. Lindle, did unlawfully, wilfully, feloniously and with malice aforethought slay and kill the said Henry Taylor by shooting him with a pistol loaded with leaden ball or other hard substance, then the jury will find the defendants, or such of them as entered into such combination, conspiracy and agreement, if any, guilty as charged in the indictment. If they will not so find, then they will acquit the defendants, or such of them as entered into such combination, conspiracy and agreement, if any, guilty as charged in the indictment. If they will not so find, then they will acquit the defendants, or such of them as entered into such combination, conspiracy and agreement, if any, guilty as charged in the indictment.

No. 2. The court instructs the jury that if they believe from the evidence, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendants, J. B. Lindle, Ed Johnson, Wade McIntosh and W. S. Penrod, or any two of them, did unlawfully conspire, confederate and combine to assault and kill the said Henry Taylor or some one or more persons who were with said Taylor, acting in concert with him, and that in

BOSTON JUBILEE

CONVENTION

Of Young Men's Christian Associations of North America.

HOPKINS COUNTY TO BE REPRESENTED.

Commemorative of the fiftieth anniversary of the beginning of Young Men's Association work in North America, there will be held in Boston, June 11 to 16, one of the most important religious gatherings North America has known, and perhaps the greatest convention ever held in the history of Young Men's Christian Association movement.

The gathering will be notable because of its representative character. Associations have organized in as many as twenty-five countries, and nearly all of these nations will have visitors at Boston.

About thirty English visitors in all are expected to attend the Convention, and one of these is to be Mr. Howard Williams, who comes as a Vice-President of the English National Council, and as a personal representative of his honored father, Sir George Williams, founder of the parent London Association.

A group of eight or ten delegates are coming from France, including Mr. Emil Sautter, the National Secretary. Mr. Jules Siegfried, former Minister of Commerce in the Republic of France, arrived some days ago.

Two delegates are assured from Russia. Mr. Franklin Gaylord, General Secretary and Father Vassiliou, a priest of the Greek Church, who has been granted permission by the Holy Synod of that church to attend this convention. This is a very important recognition by the highest authorities of this work among young men. There will also be two visitors from Finland.

Already twelve hundred delegates are reported as definitely planning to attend the Convention from the United States and Canada, and a thousand more is the number estimated as coming from States not yet reporting. The delegate list includes railroad presidents, bank presidents, prominent clergymen, military and naval leaders, and men at the forefront in educational, religious, philanthropic and in commercial and industrial pursuits.

The sessions of the Convention will open Tuesday morning, June 11, and continue through Sunday, June 16, and will be held in Mechanics' Hall, of Boston.

A more imposing list of speakers and a more attractive program could be set forth in scarcely any great meeting.

The phases of Association activity and the work of the organization among varied classes of young men will be presented with strength and dignity, and the relation of the organization to the industrial, educational and religious life of both Christian and non-Christian nations will be set forth.

An extensive and impressive Jubilee exhibit, showing the evolution of the Association work in all departments, will be arranged in the large Exhibition Hall of the Mechanics' building, being open for inspection beginning Monday evening, June 10, and remaining open throughout the Convention. A photograph recently taken of the Hopkins County Y. M. C. A. Committee, will be a part of this Jubilee exhibit, showing the pioneer Committee in the county organization work in Kentucky.

Special rates on all railroads.

Opportunities for thirty-day extensions to ticket limits for return from Boston, also for ten-day stop-overs at Buffalo on returning, where tickets read via Buffalo, are made possible by special arrangement.

GOVERNOR BECKHAM PROCLAIMS.

Importance of Good Roads Movement Urged in Official Document.

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 1.—In response to the good road movement, the governor issued today the following proclamation:

"Commonwealth of Kentucky, Executive Department.—Whereas, the question of better highways is a very important one to the people of this Commonwealth, and one which should engage the attention of the best citizens; and,

"Whereas, Acting under the suggestion of the National Good Road Association, the citizens of Louisville have arranged for the holding of a state Good Road convention in that city June 27 and 28, 1901.

"Therefore, be it known that I, J. C. Beckham, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby declare that the object of this meeting, and hereby request that the various County Judges and Mayors throughout the State shall select suitable representatives to attend and participate in the deliberations of said convention, and thereafter in a general movement looking to improved methods of building public highways in our State."

ANARCHY.

Shots Fired Into a Country Church During Services and Two Windows Demolished.

Mr. STEERLING, Ky., June 3.—During services at Sycamore church, this county, some scoundrel fired three shots into the church.

One bullet barely missed Mrs. John Trimble and the minister, while Allen Perry was slightly scared.

The shooting created a panic. The minister escaped. It was a narrow escape for the congregation, two windows being demolished by the bullets.

ROWAN COUNTY DRY.

And the Ten Thousand Dollar College Addition Will Be Built.

MOREHEAD, Ky., June 3.—Saturday was a red letter day for the temperance cause in Rowan county. A local option election was held and the "no saloon" people carried every precinct in the county by big majorities. Excitement in town was high, the church bells rang all day, women and children formed in line and paraded the streets with flags and banners, while a brass band made music.

The Christian Woman's Board of Missions will at once begin the erection of a $10,000 addition to the Normal College.

Labor Unions are Denounced.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 3.—Discussion of the report of the Committee on Secret Societies took up nearly the entire morning session of the Reformed Presbyterian Synod of America.

Several speakers, including ex-Moderator Foster, denounced labor unions, asserting that they did not leave a free field for labor, held their meetings on Sunday, and that they are pernicious in their influence and wrong in principle.

Contracts have already been closed for the accommodation of 14,820 Knights Templars during the convocation to be held in Louisville in August. The city will fully 25,000 Knights in attendance.

We are able, by a special stroke of newspaper enterprise, to give our readers today the full text of the speech Mr. Ollie James made before the jury in the Cardinale shooting case at Madisonville last Saturday morning. Many who heard this speech say it is the greatest speech that has ever been made in the present Hopkins county court house.

Courtroom in the Country.

Who of us does not feel a thrill of pleasure when we recall the happy days of youth and love and that sweet time when all the world seemed bright, smiling and glad, and we were in love, and revelled in the pleasures of the best days we will ever spend this side the eternal divide. Oh, how distinctly do we remember when we began courting our wife and the first time we asked if we could see her home from singing school. Will we ever forget the graceful way she bowed her timid head and began to chew the strings of her sun bonnet? Then taking her silence for consent, we bashfully started down the long stretch of moonlit road for the double log cabin she called home. It was an ideal night, the air seemed full of subtle fragrance wafted from a sea of flowers. The silver moon bathed the woods with mellow beauty. The katydids were singing in the trees about the way and a frightened rabbit scurried across the road.

My heart was thumping against my ribs like an old-fashioned nail against a barn door. We had not spoken a word since we left the school house and it occurred to me this was not the proper way to conduct a love affair. I thought of a thousand things that could be said and kept saying them over to myself to see how they would sound, until by the time I had screwed my courage up to the starting point, we were actually beginning to make some remark about the glint of her deep blue eyes or the shimmer of her shining hair, when a turn in the road brought us in front of her gate. The bay of a dog broke the painful silence, and I managed to remark, "that barks like old Ball."

She gave me a scornful glance and said: "Old Ball can bark better than some folks can talk." I blushed up to the roots of my curly hair and with a hurried good-night turned sadly away.

Many years have come and gone since that night, and time has furrowed our cheeks and silvered our hair, but I would give up all I possess and would find away the honors that have been heaped upon me and climb down from the dizzy heights of fame, which I now occupy, if I could only call back those days out of the mellow haze of the by-gone past when I was an innocent, unsuspecting youth and had butter-milk and pumpkin pie for dinner on Sunday.

MEN'S LIBERTY COMPROMISED.

pursuance of such conspiracy, if any, or in furtherance thereof, the said J. B. Lindle did shoot and kill Henry Taylor, and if the jury further believe from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that such killing was committed in furtherance of said conspiracy, combination or agreement, if any existed, and was the necessary and probable result of the execution of such conspiracy, if any, then the defendants or such of them as entered into such a conspiracy are guilty, although the jury may believe from the evidence that the original purpose was not to procure the bringing about the death of Henry Taylor.

No. 3. The Court instructs the jury that if they believe from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that in this county and before the finding of this indictment, the defendant J. B. Lindle did unlawfully, wilfully, feloniously and maliciously aforesaid thought and kill Henry Taylor, the person named in the indictment, by shooting him with a pistol loaded with leaden ball or other hard substance, then the jury will find him guilty and fix his punishment by death or at imprisonment in the state penitentiary for life in their discretion; and if they further believe from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendants Ed Johnson, Wade McIntosh and W. S. Penrod were then and there present or near enough to aid and abet in such slaying, or killing of said Taylor and did aid, abet, encourage and assist the said Lindle in wilfully feloniously and with malicious aforethought in killing and slaying Henry Taylor, if he did so, then the jury will find the defendants Johnson, McIntosh and Penrod or such of them as so aided, abet, encouraged or assisted in such killing, if any did so, guilty as charged and fix their punishment at death, or by confinement in the penitentiary for life, in their discretion.

No. 4. If the jury believe from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, that in this county, and before the finding of this indictment, the said J. B. Lindle did unlawfully, wilfully and feloniously, but without malicious intent in his self-defense, or apparently necessary self-defense, or in an affray, or in sudden heat and passion, and under provocation, and under duress, to excite passion beyond control, kill and slay Henry Taylor, the person named in the indictment, by shooting said Taylor with a pistol, loaded with leaden ball or other hard substance, then the jury will find the defendant not guilty of wilful murder, but guilty of voluntary manslaughter, and they will fix his punishment by confinement in the state penitentiary for not less than two years nor more than twenty years in their discretion; and if they further believe from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendants Ed Johnson, Wade McIntosh and W. S. Penrod were then and there present sufficiently near to render assistance, and did wilfully and feloniously and without malice, and in an affray or in sudden heat and passion, and under provocation ordinarily calculated to excite passion beyond control, aid, abet, encourage or assist the said Lindle in such shooting and killing, as set out in this instruction, or such killing and slaying by Lindle if he did so, as set out in instruction No. 3, then the jury will find defendants Johnson, McIntosh and Penrod or such of them as aided, abetted, encouraged or assisted in the killing of said Taylor, if any of them did so, not guilty of murder, but guilty of voluntary manslaughter, and fix their punishment or such of them as are guilty if any, by confinement in the penitentiary for not less than two years nor more than twenty years in their discretion.

No. 5. If the jury believe from the evidence, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendants, or any of them are guilty, yet entertain a reasonable doubt as to the grade of the offense which they committed, that is whether guilty of murder as defined in instructions No. 1, 2 and 3, or voluntary manslaughter, as defined in instruction No. 4, then the jury will find the defendants or such of them as are guilty, if any, guilty of voluntary manslaughter, a lower degree of the offense charged.

No. 6. If the jury believe from the evidence, that when the defendant J. B. Lindle shot and killed Henry Taylor, if he did so, he had reasonable grounds to believe, either real or apparent, and did in good faith believe, he was then in imminent danger of losing his life or suffering great bodily harm at the hands of said Taylor or Will Cook acting in concert, if in concert, or at the hands of said Taylor, and there were, as it appeared to him, and as he believed, no other safe and apparent means of averting danger, then the defendant Lindle had the right and it was lawful for him, in the exercise of a reasonable judgment to use such force as was reasonably necessary, or apparently necessary to save his own life or protect his person from great bodily harm, even to the taking of the life of said Taylor; On such ground and under circumstances the defendant Lindle is excusable under the law of self defense; and if the jury find from the evidence that the defendant Johnson, McIntosh and Penrod, did aid, abet, encourage or assist the said Lindle in his defense or in the defense of themselves as defined in this instruction, then they are excusable under the law of self-defense or defense of another. The danger to one's life or great bodily harm to his person, which authorizes him to act in his own defense or defense of another as herein indicated, may be either real or apparent danger.

No. 7. If the jury believe from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant Lindle and any one or more of the other defendants formed a conspiracy to kill Taylor or inflict upon him great bodily harm, as defined in instructions No. 1 and 2, and had begun to execute said conspiracy, if any, or if the defendants or any of them sought Taylor with purpose to inflict bodily injury on him and began the assault or conflict with him, with a deadly weapon, then the defendants or such of them as engaged in such conspiracy, if any, or sought Taylor for the purpose of inflicting bodily punishment on him and began the assault or conflict as stated above, if they did so, cannot be excused on the ground of self-defense.

No. 8. The court says to the jury that the union miners had the right to assemble and march in a peaceable manner, and for a lawful purpose, for the advancement, benefit and increase of their order by peaceable persuasion and argument, but if they assembled or marched with the view or purpose of intimidating, alarming, disturbing or injuring any person or the property of any one, or to force by fear or alarm or threat, other miners from work, then said assembling and marching was unlawful.

No. 9. The mine operators and owners had the right to employ guards and it was lawful for them to protect the property of the persons in their employ from force or reasonable fear or alarm at the hands of union miners or others, and to use reasonable and lawful means to accomplish such purpose.

No. 10. If the jury believe from the evidence that said union miners had assembled at said place and had confederated or banded themselves together for the purpose of intimidating, alarming, disturbing or injuring any person or persons, or that they confederated or banded themselves together and went forth for the purpose of molesting, injuring or destroying any property of another, then in such state of case they were guilty of a felony and the deputy sheriff, Lindle, and other defendants summoned by him had the right and it was lawful for them to disperse such persons and to arrest them without a warrant, provided the defendant, Lindle, had reasonable grounds to believe and did in good faith believe said Henry Taylor and others with him, had committed or were committing a felony, and in such state of case it was the duty of Taylor and others to disperse if commanded and submit to arrest if required, and the defendants had the right to use such force as was reasonably necessary to make the arrest, and if the jury believe from the evidence that the defendant Lindle as deputy sheriff had reasonable grounds to believe that said Taylor and others acting in concert with him had confederated and banded themselves together for the purpose of alarming, intimidating, disturbing or injuring any person or persons, or the property of any person and were then going forth for such purpose then it was lawful for Lindle and his posse to arrest or attempt to arrest said Taylor and others with him, even though in fact they were not guilty of a felony; and if in attempting to do so he was assaulted by Henry Taylor or Cook or by both and had reasonable grounds to believe either real or apparent, and did in good faith he was in imminent danger of losing his own life or suffering great bodily harm at the hands of said Taylor or others connected with him, then the defendant Lindle had the right and it was lawful for him, in the exercise of a reasonable judgment, to use such force as was reasonably necessary to save his own life or protect his person from great bodily harm even to the taking of the life of said Taylor. On such grounds and under such circumstances the defendant Lindle is excusable and the jury will acquit him. And if the jury find from the evidence that defendants, Johnson, McIntosh and Penrod, did aid or assist the said Lindle in his defense or in defense of themselves, as defined in this instruction then they are excusable and the jury will acquit them. ## A Gentle Hint.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the ailments resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boech's German Syrup kept about your house for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup, or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. ## Miss Flora Wilson Dead.

Miss Flora Wilson, of this city, died early Sunday morning, after a lingering illness of about fifteen months' duration. She was the second daughter of Mrs. Theo. Wilson, and was born October 25, 1877. She had been a consistent member of the Christian church for seven years. The remains were interred at 11:5 o'clock in the Earlington cemetery Sunday afternoon. The bereaved mother and brothers and sisters have the sympathy of all.

Alfred Wilson, a brother of the deceased, is also very low with consumption.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous sinuses.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh's Cure. Send for circular.

How it is Done.

The first object in life with the American people is "to get rich"; the second, how to retain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health) by using Green's August Flower. Better than a dependent sufferer from any of the effects of dyspepsia, liver complaint, indigestion, constipation, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Halitosis, Constipation, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well-known August Flower will relieve you at once. Get it from St. Bernard Drug Store, Earlington. You can get a sample bottle free. Regular size, 75 cts. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

The Platonic Love Letters of Charles Dickens.

For more than fifty years an English woman (who is still living) has cherished a little sheaf of letters written by Charles Dickens. These charming letters show the novelist in a new part—that of the successful matchmaker. They tell the story of another man's courtship and show how the writer spurred a faint heart into winning a fair lady. They will be printed for the first time in the Saturday Evening Post for June 15.

REVOLT.

Prominent Hopkins County Democrats
Cannot Follow Present Leadership.

REQUEST REPUBLICANS TO HOLD UP NOMINATIONS.

Many Democrats Openly Denounce Actions of Party Nominees

At a meeting of the Republican County Committee at Madisonville Monday there was a large attendance and things happened that acted like the explosion of a bomb in the ranks of the present leaders and party nominees of the Democratic organization of the county.

Messrs. J. F. Goggin, F. D. Hanes and other Democrats were present at the meeting. Mr. Goggin made a talk in which he stated some things very plainly as to the attitude of himself and many other prominent and influential Democrats of the county upon the questions affecting the material prosperity and interests of the county and their unqualified opposition to the methods of the present leadership and nominees of the party imperiling these interests.

The committee was asked to withhold action as to a ticket for thirty days and the request was granted heartily. In the mean time an understanding will be arrived at with the result a strong ticket in the field.

When asked about his speech Mr. Gordon gave out the following written statement:

"Mr. Gordon asked the committee to withhold and action looking to the nomination of a ticket for one month. That he and some other Democrats were not now prepared to follow the leadership now dominating the democratic party. That he did not address them as a republican, but as an democrat dissatisfied with the attitude of some of the party leaders upon questions which he thought materially affected the peace, good order and material prosperity of the country."

Closing Entertainment.

The closing exercises of the Earlington Public School Monday night at the new Opera House was a decided success from all standpoints. The house was filled to overflowing with a refined, intelligent audience who enjoyed the artistically arranged program from start to finish. The principal of the school, Miss Minnie Bonland, and her able and efficient assistants, Messrs. Lella House, Nell Curtis, Elsie Stokes and Mary Mothershead, deserve unstinted praise on their part in training and drilling the children. We have never witnessed an entertainment of this kind when the children were better up in their parts or entered into the spirit of the thing with more zest.

The rendition of the songs was exquisite, the poses were beautiful and the faces of the children, crowned with a halo of innocence was a sight never to be forgotten. Miss Evans, the pianist, played with her usual skill and charming grace. The scarf drill shined up splendidly and was entirely too short. And the Ranges children were just too cute and funny and full of manners. Farnsworth Orchestra made splendid music and was highly appreciated by all, as were also the instrumental renditions of Profs. Stephens and Cox and Miss Mary Porter. In fact everything was lovely and we would like to see it again.

For Malaria, Chills and Fever

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION IS Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The formula is plainly printed on every bottle—hence you know just what you are taking when you take Grove's. Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called Tasteless Chill Tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's—its superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malaria sections of the United States. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c.
